HEADMASTER'S REPORT

How we talk with you.....

It is hard to believe that only a generation ago the main way that schools contacted homes was with paper notes that often ended up subsiding into paper mache at the bottom of the bag with the banana and the missing sports sock. Once or twice a year report went home all the teachers' handwritten comments crowding on a single page - and there was also an annual speed date with all of the teachers in a draughty hall. We haven't ei ]hY`ÙI YX`h\Y`ÏqdYYX`XUhYĐd\Ybca Ybcbž'Vi h'Yj Yfnth\]b[ else has moved on. There are a myriad of ways now that schools and parents communicate, not just at Oxley, but at many good schools. I thought I would expand upon a chart and a letter that was sent to you towards the end of last term outlining the main ways we at Oxley try to communicate with you. There is always more that we can do, but I hope that cumulatively these make for good coverage.

Skoolbag - the app

This is something that we started a few months ago, and hopefully many of you are using it already. It is an app th Unid g Yg bch Whichgo bch Yg UbX ch Yf b Zcfa Unicb Uniyou through your phone. You select which groups you want to be a part of (year groups mainly) and you get tailored information to these groups. You can also report your child's absence easily using this app. If you haven't got this yet, you can download it via the App Store by searching Oxley College Skoolbag.

Canvas

For students in Years 5 to 12, this is where most, if not U^z cZ nci f'W]XtD UggYgga Ybhgž XUhYgž bchJùWhJcbg YhW for each subject can be found. It is also a trove of the resources that students are using in class. If the student loses a document, leaves it at school, or has the dog eat it, there is usually a soft copy of the document in Canvas. It also contains a myriad of links to sites and resources for many projects and assignments. Students in Kindergarten to Year 4 may experience some of this in Library to supplement more familiar resources and centralise digital material. You can use Canvas too in order to keep track of your child's work. You can now \Uj Y'nci f'ck b'`c[ ']b'hc'h\]g'dcfhU'Ug'k Y``'' Mti 'WJb'ÙbX' it at: https://oxley.instructure.com/login/ldap

Website

This is mainly an introduction to the school for new or prospective parents, but it also contains some key updated information. There is a news and events section. It is in three places; on the top ribbon, just a tiny scroll down from the opening screen, and also about three scrolls down. You can also can access the sports draw each week from about Tuesday. The website also contains our vision, mission, strategic plan etc. As a bonus, you get to see many of your children in the opening video looking.... um.... a number of years younger than they are now. www.oxley.nsw.edu.au

Yungblud- 21st Century Liability

This chaotic mesh of alternative-rock-meets-reggae-electro-trap-rap is a surprisingly uplifting ode to all things youthfully rebellious. In an unorthodox and outspoken lyrical nature, Yungblud is clearly unafraid to stir the pot, criticising with a sharp cynicism the likes of politics, conformity, gun violence, sexual consent and mental health issues. By no standards a gloomy production, the album boasts a high - energy, up tempo and often experimental electric backing to feistily delivered oh-so-british vocals.

Absolute must - listen song: I7U]Zcfb]UD ]g dYf\Udg h\Y a cgh rhymically interesting song on the album, shifting between a chorus of piano block chords with only insubstantial droning to accompany and a powerful yet sparse, syncopated and bass heavy groove in the verses. A nod to older generations' incessant judgements of kids making the same mistakes h\Ym cb\W X]XZ I7U]Zcfb]UD Vf]b[ g to mind the times of great social change of the 60s and 70s.

Absolute must - read lyrics: IDc`nf fUd\ 9nYgDZYei Ybhm Wdg U Ig_ldDcb'a mGdchlZnä=2a bch[c]b[ hc lie. But lyrically it is a very important social commentary on rape culture and sexual assault amongst teenagers and young adults. The 19 year old boy's concerns with such matters is so important to be broadcast to his young fan base and beyond.

The Staging Post

A few years ago the phrase "Stop the boats" was everywhere. It meant sending back people who were trying to make it across by boat from Indonesia to Australia in search of safety. Most of these people had made their way overland to Indonesia from Iraq, Afghanistan, Gnf]U UbX ch\Yf d`UwYg cZ WbUJ\Mi! but once in Indonesia, they found queues for processing by the United Nations for Refugees that were literally thousands of people long.

We launched the term with the promised Cosmology Convention to a very appreciative audience undaunted by the cloudy evening sky. Stephen Hawking would have been proud of all who attended. Our goal was to provoke wonder and curiosity and we were delighted with the response. I was particularly thrilled to see so many grown-up astronomers immersed in the experience and modelling adult versions of wonder and curiosity in the process.

People are smiling through their tissues, grateful for this tactfully added distraction down memory lane. It's true, though - I never registered until recently that mum would grow old one day. Who knew that time would weave its way into her bones, fold her in half, shrivel her mind. My next cue, it's embarrassing to read, recalling how deeply invested I was in some transcendental golden city. The fact that when I wrote this months and months ago, way before mum's actual death, I believed wholeheartedly in this fairytale is both horrifying and laughable; I had so much growing up to do. I grew up in a split second, just like that. Like when mum told me it was her eating Santa's cookies all along. Like when Magz told me Jesus wasn't going to come back in our life time (although she could never explain why). Disarmed by a shard of sudden realization that left me ice cold and shaking at Magz's __h\wYb`VYb\wZhfm]b[ 'hc`ZUh\ca 'h\Uha i a `\UX'idUggYX`cbbfYU]n]b[ '='UVgc'i hY`mWti `X'bch''=gU]X'U'\ubu' goodbye to the mother I knew I'd never again be loved by. Research in this area \Ug JXYbhjùYX gYj YfU ZUMkcfg h\UhVVb U YVkih\Y fYgdcbgY of onlookers (this includes witnessing bullying online). In addition to factors such as the perceived cost to the individual of intervening, a key factor that can stop people ]bh/fj Yb]b[ ]g h\Y X] i g]cb cZ f/ygdcbg]V]]hm 5 UbX]b[ from multiple social experiments in this area has been that, counter intuitively, the likelihood of an individual intervening or reporting bullying decreases when the number of bystanders increases. This is particularly problematic on social media, when membership of an online group may be very large. In such scenarios, nonaction by witnesses can seem easier to justify, on the basis that "surely someone else will do something". When intervention or reporting does not occur, the actions of the perpetrator are implicitly legitimised. It is hoped that the MindMatters program will help students become aware of these factors and develop strategies to address bullying when it occurs - to stand up, not stand by. Welcome back to term 3. It is great to see students return refreshed and ready to learn (despite the bitter July winds!). We are all looking forward to a term of thriving and learning.

SNOWSPORTS

During the July holidays the Oxley College Snow sports team participated in the Northern NSW region Interschool's Snowsports Championships. We were lucky to have beautiful weather conditions throughout the weeks as we had 24 participants in our team this year. Everyone did incredibly well and maintained a positive attitude throughout the competition. We had a variety of ages this year which ranged to Division 6 – 1, allowing us to expand our team. We had excellent results with our Division 2 Males as well as Division 6 Males. Thank you to all the parents/guardians who organised and assisted managing as well as Mr.Wansey and Mrs.McNaught who without we would not be able to compete. Good luck to everyone who made it to the next round and thank you for a great season! By Jordan Colby (Snowsports Captain).

SEASONAL FOOD?

Have you noticed at the supermarket where the fruit and vegetables that you buy are grown? You are probably very busy or in a rush and you don't notice where it is coming from. I was outraged to see mandarins in a local supermarket had been grown in Egypt. That is the other side of the world. Egypt to Sydney then to Bowral is 14,549 kilometres. That's a lot of transport for mandarins that can be grown in Australia.

This pollution will destroy the ozone layer. As you may know, an ozone layer is a bubble around the earth and because of pollution it has a hole in it so that is why we have to put sunscreen on.

Firstly, look for seasonal Australian grown fruit and vegetables in your supermarket. This is easy because the government said that they have to be labelled. Secondly, go to local farmers markets where local farmers sell their food to you direct. There is one in Bowral every second Saturday at Bowral Public and the Farmers and Flea Market is at the Moss Vale Showground on the fourth Saturday of each month. Also you can stop and buy from farmers at stalls outside their gates. Finally, grow your own fruit and vegetables. It's easier to do and you don't need a lot of space. Then, instead of having to go to the supermarket, you can simply go out to your backyard and get your own home grown produce.

Do you want to just help one single student to try and make the ozone layer stop getting bigger? Well start buying seasonal or local grown fruit and vegetables or grown your own. By Claudia Carpenter (Year 3)

Rescued Thai Boys are considering to be ordained as Monks

After the incredible rescue of the Thai boys and their soccer coach from Nang Non cave, 12 boys are considering to temporarily become Monks. The tragic death of Saman Kunan, a former Thai Navy SEAL, has left the Thai boys mourning the loss of Kunan. 38-year-old Kunan unfortunately lost consciousness on the return trip when laying oxygen hUb_giZcfh\YfYgWVYY cfhžfYgi hjb[ in Kunan drowning in the cave. The action of becoming ordained as Buddhist Monks is to donate the merit the boys receive towards Kunan in the afterlife, to ensure a better rebirth in the next life. The donation of merit from the boys towards Kunan is the greatest gift h\ymivWb c yf" (GUa Ub cbWr gu)X: we never knew when we would die. We can't control that, so we need to cherish every day." – Ms. Kunan
